Nothing lasts forever
Not your troubles
Not your pleasures

Life can be sad, It can be merry
But it all is temporary
Go with the flow it won't last long

No worry you're in control
And if you're not just let it go

Life is magic, yet it happen
It is all you can imagine

Not every tree will keep on growing
Not all streams are ever flowing
Impermanence, it's just a fact

No worry you're in control
And if you're not just let it go

Enjoy that ice cream cone
Because it won't last long

Life is not a fairy tale
You may succeed or you may fail
Roll with the punches
All things must pass

No worry you're in control
And if you're not just let it go

Let it go . . .
